

Table of Contents

Compliance Calendar.....	1
--------------------------	---

Human Resources

1. Planning for and Executing A Reduction in Force.....	5
Because job losses are an inevitable part of any economic downturn, it is important to plan ahead should your company need to reduce its work force. As the old saying goes – an ounce of prevention avoids a ton of litigation.
2. Protecting Yourself From Personal Liability in Employment-related Decisions.....	13
The excuse that “the dog ate my homework” won’t cut it in making employment decisions. Managers and supervisors must have the written arsenal and policies in place to protect themselves from personal liability when making employment-related decisions.
3. The New ADA Amendments: Increasing the Burden on Employers .....	21
Recently enacted legislation will expand ADA coverage to more persons with disabilities, thus likely necessitating more reasonable accommodation
4. The New Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act: Basics and Compliance Tips .....	27
Employers should get ready now for the effective date of a new federal statute barring discrimination based on genetic information in employment and for health insurance purposes
5. Recent Supreme Court Decisions And What May Come Next .....	33
Despite its reputation as a conservative court, the U.S. Supreme Court issued several decisions this last term that arguably expanded certain types of employee claims. Here are the highlights and their implications, and a look at what may come next.
6. The New ICE Age: The Government Cracks Down on Employer Immigration Violations .....	39
U.S. Immigration &amp; Customs Enforcement worksite enforcements incorporate multiple investigations and criminal charges that have resulted and will continue to result in serious felony charges for employees and their employers. Here’s what to do to limit the risks.
7. New President, New Immigration Rules? U.S. Immigration in 2009.....	51
Immigration is an issue for all employers. Every organization, therefore, should take simple steps to keep free of immigration liability and to be ready to take advantage of immigration opportunities.
8. Practical Guidelines for Employee Data Security .....	71
Establishing clear policies to protect sensitive employee data will help protect employees from identity theft and the employer from liability
9. Background Checks: Available Options for Investigating Employees and Applicants .....	79
Done correctly, background checks offer employers a powerful tool to help ensure they make hiring decisions in the best interests of their organizations. The key is to understand the available options for conducting this research, what’s permissible and what’s not.
10. A New Look at an Old Law: Protected Concerted Activity Under the NLRA.....	89
Many HR professionals only think of unions when they hear “National Labor Relations Act,” but actually the law provides protection to employees in a broader context. Proposed changes to the NLRA and increased awareness of the law’s provisions may spark increased use of this “employee rights” statute.
11. The Employee Free Choice Act – A Window Of Opportunity for Union Labor Law Reforms? .....	95
Labor law reform is on the horizon – will you be prepared?

12. Can an SPD Be Two Things in One? .....	109
Plan administrators thinking of having the summary plan description double as the plan document should proceed cautiously
13. Employer-sponsored Personal Health Records .....	117
Compliance tips for obtaining, storing and using employees' personal health information
14. Is Beauty in the Eye Of the Employer? .....	125
Appearance discrimination becomes an important issue for all employers
15. Medical Misdiagnosis and Its Impact on the Workplace .....	139
Employers are discovering that errors in diagnosing employee health problems occur frequently – and they have a significant impact upon health benefits planning

Compensation and Benefits

16. Dual-role Benefit Plan Administrator Conflicts: Proceed With Caution .....	147
The Supreme Court's ruling in Metropolitan Life Ins. Co. v. Glenn increases the likelihood of the courts overturning certain benefits decisions. Understanding the ruling and what steps to take in its wake can help companies limit that risk.
17. Same-sex Marriage: Different Views From Across the Country .....	153
Court decisions on same-sex marriage are multiplying across the country. Employers need to keep up to date on these developments and examine their policies to determine whether any changes are required to bring them into compliance with applicable law.
18. Mental Health Parity: New Requirements Under Federal Law .....	159
Recently enacted federal legislation mandates parity in mental health benefits. Together with state laws regulating mental health benefits, this is a subject employers can no longer ignore.
19. What Are Educational Assistance Programs Really Worth? .....	173
Whether you're an employer looking to implement an educational assistance program or already have a program in place, this chapter provides guidelines to help you strategically develop a program that focuses on how to achieve a return on investment
20. Penny-pinching at the Pump: How Employers Can Help Employees With Higher Fuel Costs .....	181
Rising commuting costs have jolted employees, and employers are responding. Here's what some are doing and what others could try.
21. Mandating Direct Deposit Of Employee Wages: A State-by-state Survey .....	187
The laws vary, but most states permit employers to opt for direct deposit, provided they give their consent
22. The Modern HSA Environment: Impact of Recent Guidance .....	201
Recent changes to the basic HSA law and new IRS guidance should get the attention of employees and plan sponsors alike

Retirement Plans

23. Revenue Procedure 2008-50: Changes to the IRS' EPCRS Program .....	211
Correcting retirement plan errors should now be easier and less expensive
24. Tips on Complying With Internal Revenue Code Section 409A .....	219
The final regulations under Section 409A become effective Jan. 1, 2009, posing significant challenges for human resources and employee benefits professionals.
25. The Supreme Court's Decision In LaRue: Plan Sponsors and Fiduciaries Take Note .....	239
A significant increase in litigation is unlikely, but the ruling will focus more scrutiny on ERISA fiduciaries and employee benefits in general	